

In a time of darkness
under the oppression of government,

a faithful man
and his pregnant wife
undertook a humble journey of faith . . .

... that brought hope to a dying world and the promise of a new dawn for those who would dare to believe. The truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is not diminished by circumstance or issue even in our modern existence. Rather, the joy of life eternal is presented as a gift of love for whomever is willing to receive it.

Christmas Morning

A time to remember the ultimate gift of God's Son

A time to enjoy the love of family and friends

Merry Christmas.
