

To order *The Gift of Life*

The Gift of Life painting is rich in symbolism. Everything outside is paralleled inside, sometimes with a twist as often is the case in a Christian life. The painting also includes a dozen crosses, many of which are hidden to be discovered by seekers.

A mother snuggles with her newborn child. A father, looking out the window with his daughters, shares the meaning of the Nativity scene. The message is simple; the birth of Christ provides the opportunity for a new and eternal life in Him, the greatest gift of all. Similarly, the birth of a new child in a family also is a miracle and further demonstration of God's wonderful gift of life.

"I am five-fold blessed with the Gift of Life. First, God in His mercy gave me this gift when I was born. I received it a second time when I was born again as a teenager. My third blessing is sharing a new life with my husband Kevin when we two became one. I have also experienced it twice more with the birth of our two daughters, Madysen and Kieryn. I wanted to share the joy and peace of this gift of life that is the true meaning of Christmas." –Marnie Freeman