

The White House In Springtime

Celebrating Truth Through Art

To order *The White House In Springtime*

The White House In Springtime was originally featured in the official Invitation to the Christian Inaugural Eve Gala, held in Washington, D.C. on January 19, 2005, and was sponsored by the Traditional Values Coalition and the American Center for Law and Justice.

The view is of the front of the White House from the park. Tulips are in full bloom, signifying springtime and to represent the hope of renewal and new beginnings for our nation and to celebrate the second Inauguration of George W. Bush, 43rd President of the United States. In the background, the Washington Monument stands tall as a reminder of our strong leadership heritage.

"I was honored to be asked by the Gala committee to design the invitation and thrilled to be able to include my original painting, The White House in Springtime. It seems that there are so many forces trying to strip our nation of its Judeo-Christian roots. I am pleased to stand with and support the faithful who promote building our future on a foundation of traditional values."

--Marnie Freeman

Copyright © 2005 Marnie Freeman. All Rights Reserved.

